FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Frank and John Cocuzzi combine their talents with some of the finest musicians in the Washington, DC, metropolitan area to offer you a great range of musical styles: jazz, blues, swing, dance standards and American pop tunes from the 20s through the 80s, including 50s - 60s rock & roll music for your "oldies but goodies" theme party. Whatever the occasion, we can plan a rich and varied musical program for your enjoyment.

Select from several musical combos: solo piano, duo, trio, quartet. Larger groups can be assembled for your special event.

TOGETHER

Great standards sung in John and Frank's unique style:

Oh, Lady Be Good
I Found a New Baby
Spanish Eyes
Willow Weep for Me
The Way You Look Tonight
Mack the Knife

and more...

John Cocuzzi

keyboards, vibes and vocals

John's dynamic and versatile style has established him as one of the most sought-after musicians on the jazz and party scene in the DC area. He has performed at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, The Smithsonian, The National Press Club, Myerhoff Symphony Hall, Baltimore, MD, and Blues Alley, Washington, DC's premier jazz club. John also plays New Orleans and swing blues with Big Joe and the Dynaflo.

The Cocuzzi Quartet

Frank Cocuzzi
vocals and drums

After performing at Carnegie Hall with the Eastman Wind Ensemble, touring as a percussionist with the Eastman Philharmonia Orchestra, and eight years with the United States Marine Band,

Frank settled in the DC area where he has worked with some of the area's finest musicians. Since 2003, Frank has been privileged to play drums at Arlington's Crystal City Jazz Celebration. He also plays with the popular dance band, The Family, and The Rockin' Reasons, a 50s - 60s rock 'n' roll band.
